

Cir-2223-147
Ain Najm, June 6, 2023

“Life was meant for good friends and great adventures.”

Target students: S2/1re

Topic: End-of-year Outing to collect money for the children who have cancer

As a follow-up to their social and spiritual project, grade 11 students (FP & LP) will be spending some unforgettable time in Shabrouh region. In addition to some prayer time for the sake of children who have cancer, the students will go on a hike in the natural landscape of the area, and take part in a number of team building and sports activities to promote a healthy lifestyle.

The students are required to bring a hat, sunscreen, water and food.

For those who would like to help a child with cancer, we are collecting donations for the Children Cancer Centre of Lebanon (USD and/or LBP).
